Easy Fitment Guide - just a few simple measurements will make sure you get the right fit ... whatever shape you're in!

When ordering please use your stomach measurement if this is larger than your chest size

Chest - measure comfortably across middle of chest under the arms and all round back to full circle - eg. 42" (107cm)

Stomach - measure comfortably across navel, and all round back to full circle - eg. 34" (86cm)

Please take measurements over a shirt stating Metric or Imperial measure

Although we take great care making our products we rely entirely on the measurements you provide. Please follow our guide instructions accurately. We cannot accept responsibility if the information you submit is incorrect. If in doubt please contact us for advice. Our Made-to-Measure garments are produced to your specific instructions and cannot be refunded. However, we will undertake adjustments if required. The inherent nature of silk means it may vary slightly in pattern and shade. Our picture examples should be considered as quite accurate guidance only. Fabric samples are available. Our designs and fabrics may change from time to time.

Please allow 2 - 8 weeks if possible (depending on range) for completion of your order. Please email post or fax back to us.
